

Official Verification of Attendance and Degrees

The UC Berkeley Official Verification of Attendance and Degrees is the University's official verification document. It bears the university seal and the signature of the registrar, includes all the information listed below as well as some optional information upon request. It is printed on security paper that cannot be copied or faxed and is difficult to alter or forge. An Official Verification of Attendance and Degrees is available free of charge at the service counter in 120 Sproul Hall and no forms are required.

Official Verification of Attendance and Degrees are most commonly used for proof of registration, verification of degrees earned, confirmation of full-time or part-time registration status, loan deferment information, etc.

The basic verification information includes:

- Student name;
- College;
- Major(s);
- UC Berkeley school code;
- Degree(s) earned at UC Berkeley;
- Degree date(s);
- Term(s) enrolled;
- Beginning and ending dates of term(s) enrolled;
- Enrollment status for term(s) enrolled; and
- Semester units carried for term(s) enrolled.

The Office of the Registrar will mail an Official Verification of Attendance and Degrees to the address of your choice for a postage & handling fee of $3.00 per copy. Current students may request a mailed copy of an Official Verification of Attendance and Degrees online via Bear Facts. The postage & handling fee for online orders are charged directly to CARS accounts.
