Note: "Reading Yiddish Texts: Homeland and Exile in Palestinian Yiddish Literature" – Yiddish is largely associated with Europe, yet a significant body of Yiddish literature was written in Palestine between 1900 and 1948. These texts, many of which are modernist in character, provide a unique perspective on the traditional Jewish link with the ancestral homeland while illuminating an often unacknowledged ambivalence towards the Zionist project. Requirements: a reading knowledge of Yiddish. Taught in English.
