Also known as the Dean’s Certification or Letter of Recommendation, these documents are commonly required of applicants to Law Schools and Professional Graduate Programs. The Common Application for undergraduates transferring to different institution is another form of this document.

Most institutions offer their own forms for applicants to complete and have certified by the Office of the Registrar. However, UC Berkeley’s standard Letter of Good Standing is free of charge, and provides all the information required by these types of documents. It certifies your:

- Graduation date(s) and/or anticipated graduation date;
- Dates of attendance;
- Academic standing; and

Complete this form to request up to four (4) Letters of Good Standing. Additional request form(s) are required for more than four. If you have forms from the institutions to which you’re applying, we can attach them to your Letter of Good Standing.

Alternatively, you may use this form to request that we complete and certify forms from other institutions for a special processing fee of $10 per form and/or copy sent to each address and/or delivery method.
