NOTE: Students in their first year of the program are assessed the Educational Fee as a Graduate Academic student (see chart above) instead of the Educational Fee as a Professional

student. ^ back to index

Miscellaneous Fees

- A course materials fee (CMF) is assessed to students enrolled in specially designated courses. The fee, which varies by section and is indicated in the course listings, is assessed to students enrolled in these courses at the end of the 5th week of instruction. Students who drop the course(s) after that date are not entitled to a refund of the CMF.
*At this time, certain courses in Bioengineering, Biology, Chemistry, Earth and Planetary Science, Electrical Engineering, Geography, Integrative Biology, Journalism, Molecular and Cell Biology, Physical Education, and Physics require the CMF. Other courses may also require this fee.
- A Late Enrollment Fee of $50 is charged to continuing students who fail to use Tele-BEARS and enroll in at least one class by the end of the Adjustment Period.
- A Late Registration Fee of $50 is charged to continuing students who fail to pay their registration fees (either in full or the first installment) by the fee payment deadline.
- An Add Fee of $5 per course is charged to students who add classes after the third week of instruction.
- A Drop Fee of $10 per course is charged to undergraduates who drop classes after the second week of instruction, and charged to graduate students who drop courses after the third week of instruction.

All fees are automatically billed to student accounts by the Campus Accounts Receivables System (CARS) and will be reflected on their monthly CARS billing statements. (NOTE: Registration fees for Fall 2004 will not be billed to students' accounts until mid-July 2004.)

Requests for waiver of these fees must be substantiated with proof that failure to meet the deadline(s) was due to the action or inaction of the University. Direct requests for waivers to the Office of the Registrar, 120 Sproul Hall. ^ back to index
